

Positive Piano Practicing

Let's make practicing a nice time together by showing each other-

- ♥ a positive attitude
- ♥ loving behavior.

These are a few of my favorite practicing words:

- 😊 "I like how you..."
- 😊 "You're being so cheerful!"
- 😊 "Did you hear how I...?"
- 😊 "Oops!"
- 😊 "This is so fun!"
- 😊 "Mistakes are nothing to worry about."
- 😊 "I can do it!"
- 😊 "I appreciate you working so hard."
- 😊 "Way to go!"
- 😊 "Thank you for helping me."
- 😊 "That was my best time so far!"
- 😊 "We make a great team!"

Isn't it kind of nice to know you are doing the same thing children have been doing forever?

"Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out" Proverbs 26:20 (If there is no negativity-complaining, arguing, or fighting-there isn't a fight. Instead, we can have fun!)

Family Rule: You can play after your music practicing, housecleaning jobs, and homework are done completely. If you choose to have a yelling and screaming tantrum, you give up your playtime with friends and/or media time that day (Mom's choice).
